With Sally

Well, here was John, standing balanced on a rain barrel and the downpour was drizzling all around him, sliding off his bald head and making him very mad.

"Holy smokes!" he roared at us. "What's a little leak in the bedroom? I can't find anything wrong with this gutter."

Of course it is true, we were both getting wetter out in the rain than if we had stayed huddled in the house; but it was also true that there was a leak in the bedroom ceiling. And we have always felt there are too many wet blankets in the world already without adding any more.

John let loose of the corner of the roof, which he was holding, and began waving his hand around like he always does when he makes speeches.

"Sally," he shouted. "If there's one thing I can't understand, it's how you have gone through life this far without being confined to an asylum. Don't you know that Frank Neumann will come down here and fix this gutter for almost nothing?"

The neighbors were beginning to look out of their windows.

"There's no earthly reason," John harangued us, waving both arms now quite wildly, "why I should be out here standing on a rain barrel when you should have called the Daly City Sheet Metal Works weeks ago."

We giggled. And just then John's foot slipped and there was a loud splash and the next thing we knew nothing was there except the rain barrel, with John's legs waving wildly out over the top of it.

We were too surprised to do anything for a minute, and then we sighed and guessed we had lost the argument, so we went inside and called Frank Neumann.

Do you like pink teddy bears? So do we. Since our bedspread was already ruined, we ordered a new one from Gracie's place on Mission street. She makes them to order, and they're just beautiful, especially the ones with pink teddy bears.

Gary Cooper, Doris Davenport and Walter Brennan are the Big Three who contribute to the romance, drama and action of Samuel Goldwyn's new roaring epic of the old West, "The Westerner," now playing at the Daly City theatre. The film depicts the roistering period when Judge Bean ruled as "The Law West of the Pecos."

John came dripping into the house a few minutes later, raving like a maniac. He wouldn't even listen when we started telling him about the pink teddy bears. Men just don't appreciate the finer things of life.

But he did appreciate the nice, strong coffee we made from Daly City Cut Rate Market, and though he didn't say a word, he drank it down in great gulps and took big bites of a ripe banana from Farmers Market.

He looked so funny sitting there wrapped up in a quilt that we were tempted to call in that nice photographer, Mr. Dale A. Hovey. Mr. Hovey takes pictures right in your own home, and he charges very little for them . . . wedding pictures and parties and babies and so on.

Now usually John forgets things, but he kept on brooding over this rain-barrel episode. At dinner he was still mad and kept muttering "gutters" to himself and only ate one dish of the lovely home-made mushroom sauce that they're giving away free with ravioli down at Lucca's this week.

When he absent-mindedly took the smallest piece of chocolate cake from Geneva Bakery by mistake, we knew the situation was serious.

"I'm going out to a poker game," he growled and picked up his hat.

"John, you come right back here," we commanded. "You're not going to ruin your hat by going out in the rain. Beeson Cleaners just blocked it. And anyway, the basement has to be painted tonight. We have the most beautiful paint," we said cozzingly. "Coral color. Bought it from H. H. Smith."

"Coral color!" John exclaimed. He turned purple. "If you think I'm going to spend the evening putting pink roses on the basement woodwork! ! I'm playing poker tonight."

We realized we'd have to change our tactics.

"Of course you are, darling," we agreed. "You've had a hard day. You just sit down and rest, and we'll call the Joneses and get up a nice little poker game right here at home. We can have some cheese sandwiches—Robertson's fresh American cheese—with rye bread from Westlake Market

To Stage Dog Show Tomorrow And Sunday In S. F.

The little cocker spaniel will be the "Number One Dog" at the big Dog Show tomorrow and Sunday at the Civic auditorium, from the standpoint of numerical supremacy at least.

More cocker spaniels were entered when the lists closed than those of any other breed. There were 125 of these saucy little "pooches."

Next in numerical popularity were dachshundes, 75 of them and the various types of collies registered totaled 52. Doberman pinschers, chows and hosts of little pekingese, pomeranians and toy dogs were not far behind.

Approximately a thousand dogs were entered, making this year's show one of the largest to be held west of Chicago. Preparations have been made for more than 25,000 spectators, the number of people who witnessed last year's dog show. Obedience tests and other events will be on the program during the two-day show.

Beverly Baril and a trio of champion pekingese dogs which have been entered by Mrs. S. L. Hyman at the big Golden Gate Kennel Club Dog Show, to be held tomorrow and Sunday, at the San Francisco Civic auditorium.

A Delicious Dessert

—By Frances Lee Barton—

IF prunes are good for various ills and marshmallows taste fine; and gelatin's a favorite with children—yours or mine; it seems to me that Molded Fluff such as the one below; at any home, at any time, should easily "steal the show."

Molded Prune Fluff

1 package orange-flavored gelatin; 1¼ cups hot prune juice and water; 2½ cups seeded cooked prunes; 18 marshmallows.

Dissolve gelatin in hot prune juice and water. Chill until cold and syrupy. Arrange 6 prunes and 6 marshmallows in bottom of 2 quart mold. Dice remaining prunes and marshmallows. Place chilled gelatin in bowl of cracked ice or ice water and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and thick like whipped cream. Fold in diced prunes and marshmallows. Pour into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve plain, with custard sauce, or with plain or whipped cream. Serves 8.

For the whole Bible, the total is 1,189 chapters, 41,173 verses, 774,746 words, and 3,566,480 letters.

First Successful Air Flight

The Wright brothers made their first successful airplane flight in 1903.

Impulses Influence Life

It is much easier to act firmly and bravely under a strong impulse than it is to restrain an impulse when called upon to do so. Of all the battles of life there is not one that requires so much real courage as that silent battle with self, which every dutiful person finds it frequently necessary to wage.

SCOUTING THE SHOPS With Sally

and some punt from Vireno's . . ."

John groaned. "Poker, Sally, is something that women are like flies in the ointment in. I could use stronger language, but I won't."

We took a bite of a butter cookie from Milo's Market and said nothing.

"I bid five," John continued. "So what do you do? You tell Mrs. Jones that there's a Simply Wonderful Sale at the Daly City Dress Shop with the Most Darling Little Dresses.

"I say five again. Then what does Jones do? He kicks Mrs. Jones under the table. So she says, 'oh, you old meanie!' So I say five again. So where is Jones? His mind is wandering because he knows from the look in his wife's eye that he'll have to buy the best flowers he can find at the Daly City Nursery to patch things up again.

"Meantime, you drop your cards, and Jones and I bump each other's heads, trying to pick them up.

"So I say five again, and I'm getting mad. So you say 'John, darling, don't roar so. You sound like a radio that needs to be taken to Byrne's Radio Store to be fixed.'

"'Sally, what beautiful fingernail polish!' Mrs. Jones squeals. 'Wherever did you find it?' And you say, 'Oh, did you hear about the wonderful job the Daly City Mattress Company does upholstering furniture?'

"Poor Jones tears his hair and he says very loudly, 'Raise you one,' and Mrs. Jones says, 'Darling, what ever does that mean? Cards are so complicated. Oh, Sally, guess who's coming to the Daly City theatre this week-end. Robert Taylor! Isn't it thrilling!'

"And about this time," John concluded bitterly, "either you or she manages to knock the chips off the table. No, sir!" he said grimly, clapping his hat on again, "I'm playing poker with the boys."

"All right, dear," we agreed. "You run along and we'll ask Mrs. Johnson to keep us company. She loves to talk, and she'll die laughing when she hears how you fell in the rain barrel this morning."

p. s. John painted the basement . . . coral. But we'll never dare ask him to fix a gutter again, and we hope he doesn't find out that Mrs. Johnson was looking out the window this morning.

Kansas City Shakeup

The shakeup of the Kansas City police department has really brought results. Cleanup has extended beyond crime and politics. Now Saturday night baths will be given the —well—here's the story from the beginning. A police captain strolling through a park noticed the fish pond was scummy and the gold fish were mighty dingy. He ordered the water changed and each fish washed every Saturday night in a salt solution to brighten it up a bit.

Auctioneer Is Boss

American courts have held that an auctioneer is not compelled to accept the highest bid, according to Collier's. In a Minnesota case, a house was sold to the first bidder for $975 after the second and only other bidder had offered $980. The auctioneer refused to consider such a trifling increase. So the second bidder sued but lost his case on the ground that no contract exists until the offer to purchase is accepted by the auctioneer.

War Casualties Listed

First casualties of the next war were the hens of Joe Mikulich, and he wants to know what the government is going to do in the way of reparations. While limbering up for Armageddon, if and when it comes, the field artillery of the California National Guard planted an explosive shell in Joe's chicken coop near San Pablo. There was heavy loss of life among the feathered noncombatants, and the survivors, suffering from shell shock, have not laid an egg since.

Choosing Your Dessert

By Frances Lee Barton

If you have ever seen it or caught its lush aroma; if you have ever tasted it in Tulsa or Tacoma; you'll order Sally's Chocolate Sponge whenever you are able — this sweet brunette, this light dessert, this "oomph" dish of the table.

Sally's Chocolate Sponge

2 squares unsweetened chocolate; 2 tablespoons butter; 1 cup sugar; ¼ teaspoon salt; 1 tablespoon water; 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten. Melt chocolate in double boiler. Add butter and stir until blended. Add sugar, salt, and water and heat 1 minute. Cool slightly while beating egg whites. Stir chocolate mixture into egg whites, gently but thoroughly. Turn into custard cups. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour and 15 minutes. Serve hot with whipped cream. Serves 4.

Home Equality

An extensive survey taken at Pasadena, Calif., relative to father's place in the home, revealed that the majority of mothers believe if father will just keep out of the kitchen he isn't a bad person to help out along other lines of housework. The final conclusion was that America is achieving equality in home making —meaning that father is doing an increasing share of the "housework."

"ALL-AMERICAN WAVE," originated by Mona Manet for Helen Claire (above), who is heard on the "Dr. Christian" series over Columbia network, is adaptable for both daytime and evening wear. Here is the way it is arranged. Part your hair horizontally across the top of your head from ear to ear. Arrange front hair in a pompadour wave, tucking ends under with pins. Bring the sides up and forward in soft flat curls. For daytime, comb the back hair into soft curls like the photo on the left. For evening arrange the back hair so that the upper layer is brought over from left to right and made into a flat curl in back of the ear, and the lower hair brought to opposite side in another curl.

Peace or War

Speaking of shot and shell, Diego Carrales Noya, Spanish civil war veteran, found peace deadlier than war. Noya went through the entire conflict without even a scratch. But upon returning to peacetime pursuits he got himself a job, was killed five hours later when a rock fell on him.

African Military Training

Although Tanganyika is not supposed to train natives for military purposes, the government has decided to form a police reserve composed of Askaris and any other Africans who wish to join. In time of emergency they will be incorporated in the regular police force.

Valuable Copper Sludge

Precious metals are recovered from the sludge of copper refineries, says Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. Cadmium is a by-product of zinc smelting. Selenium, now widely used in making ruby-colored glass, was once a waste of copper refineries, and antimonial lead is produced by working up the scum from softening furnaces in lead refining.

Interesting Manuscript

What is called "the most interesting MS. in England" can be seen by visitors in the Library of Corpus Christi college at Cambridge. It is the copy of the Gospels which Pope Gregory sent with Augustin when he made his first missionary journey to convert the English to Christianity in the year 597.

House Fly Massacre

Pupils of the ninth grade at Tiffin, Ohio, told that every housefly killed now means millions less later in the season, killed 8,226 of the insects in one week. They computed that their victims would have been ancestors of 49,336,000,000,000,000 buzzing, disease-breeding descendants by next fall.

Lucca Ravioli Co. Introduces New Mushroom Sauce

In order to introduce their new mushroom sauce, the Lucca Ravioli company will present each customer who purchases a card of raviolis with a generous portion of the sauce, Saturday only.

"The correct sauce with raviolis really makes the meal," John Stanghellini, market manager, said today. "We want everyone to take advantage of this offer. This mushroom sauce speaks for itself."

Egg Experiment

The University of California experimented for a year to ascertain if egg production could be increased by keeping the hens in cooled henhouses. The answer was, "No." Only one thing was ascertained, the university reported, and this was that in the hot days, the hens were noticeably more comfortable in the cooled henhouses.
